

Grzegorz Jurczyk – Composer, Arranger, Music Producer

Grzegorz Jurczyk is a composer, arranger and music producer, a graduate of the Academy of Music in Katowice. He creates original music for films, trailers, commercials and theatre, combining classical sensitivity with modern cinematic production techniques.

His musical language moves freely between orchestral, electronic and piano based sound worlds. He focuses on emotion, atmosphere and narrative, crafting music that supports storytelling and visual impact. Grzegorz has composed soundtracks for short films, advertising campaigns and stage productions, adapting his style to a wide range of artistic and commercial needs.

Alongside applied music, he develops his own artistic projects. His contemporary classical works have been presented at festivals in Poland and abroad. He has released two solo albums exploring the sound of the piano combined with electronic and electroacoustic textures, creating immersive and cinematic soundscapes.

With a background in classical composition and years of experience in modern music production, Grzegorz offers a complete creative process from concept and composition, through orchestration and sound design, to final mix and delivery. He works in professional production environments including Cubase, Ableton and Sibelius, ensuring high technical quality and efficient collaboration with directors, producers and developers.

Based in Warsaw, Poland, Grzegorz Jurczyk is available for international projects in film, trailers, video games, advertising and multimedia.
